CHURCH OF SAINT AGNES

PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Archbishop Hebda has appointed me to be the next pastor of Holy Family Catholic Church in St. Louis Park. This transfer means that I will have to depart Saint Agnes Church and School. It has truly been a great honor to serve Christ and His Church here. I am very grateful to have been your pastor and to have benefited from your prayers, support and your desire for a deeper faith in Christ. Although I asked for a third six-year term, I trust Divine Providence is at work through the decision of our Archbishop. I will become pastor at Holy Family effective July 1, 2024.

On that same day, your new pastor will be someone that you already know, Fr. John Ubel. He was one of God's instruments eighteen years ago to help save Saint Agnes High School and he continued the great traditions of the Church of Saint Agnes. Fr. Ubel is both an excellent preacher and writer, he is a faithful son of the Church, and he is a hard worker. I am confident that many good things lie in store for Saint Agnes under his leadership.

Please pray for me as I depart to serve a new parish family. Saint Agnes will always be near and dear to my heart, and you can be assured of my prayers.

Most sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mark Moriarty

AT SAINT AGNES

Beverages and rolls served Sunday after Masses in Schuler Hall by members of the Blessed Karl of Austria Men's Club.

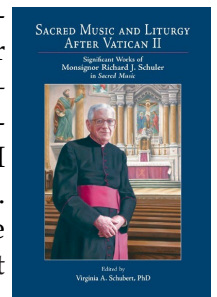

Also following all Masses Sunday, the Blessed Karl of Austria Men's Club will be selling custom, hand-thrown Church of Saint Agnes mugs and steins in Schuler Hall. Mugs will be sold for $20 and steins will be sold for $25. Not able to make it these weekend? These limited-editions mugs and steins will be available for purchase in the parish office throughout this Easter season.

We welcome Fr. Joshua Caswell, SJC as he celebrates the 10:30am Mass and preaches the homily this Sunday, April 21st. Fr. Caswell is the Superior General of St. John Cantius Church in Chicago, Illinois. The Canons Regular of St. John Cantius have long had a special relationship with the Church of Saint Agnes because of Msgr. Schuler, so we are honored to have Fr. Caswell join us to celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass as part of the Twin Cities Catholic Chorales 50th season.

Sacred Music and Liturgy After Vatican II

Join us after the 10:30 am Mass for a reception in Schuler Hall to celebrate the publication of an important book, Sacred Music and Liturgy After Vatican II.

This book, edited by Virginia A. Schubert, parishioner and former member and president of the Board of the Chorale, includes the major articles written by Monsignor Schuler for over 20 years as editor of Sacred Music and also presents current commentaries on the effects of Vatican II on our sacred music and liturgy. Dr. Schubert will be signing copies of the book. It is also available at Leaflet Missal, leafletonline.com or by calling: 651.487.2818. SKU: 36090. Price: $27.95.

CHORALE AND ORCHESTRA NOTES

Charles Gounod, Messe Solennelle (Saint Cecilia Mass)

The music for this Mass is sponsored by Mary Lou Jantz, Charles W. Nelson, Richard & Carol Petrone, Virginia A. Schubert, Patrice Spencer, Patricia Cheryl York, the Twin Cities Catholic Chorale and in memory of Roger V. Young, O.S.B., obl. in memory of Msgr. Richard J. Schuler for whom this Mass is offered.

Composer Charles Gounod (1818–1893) was a practicing Catholic who as a youth contemplated becoming a priest. The Messe Solennelle was dedicated by the composer to Saint Cecilia, the patron saint of musicians, who like Saint Agnes was martyred in early Christian Rome.

The Twin Cities Catholic Chorale is a non-profit organization that depends solely on the generosity of its patrons. Programs are available at the church entrances and are also posted on the Chorale website, www.catholicchorale.org. Next Sunday the Chorale and Orchestra will present Anton Bruckner's Missa Solemnis, a new addition to the repertory.
